

ENERGY SOLUTIONS FROM TOYOTA

Choosing the right energy solution for your truck fleet is crucial for maximising productivity, efficiency, and sustainability while minimising costs. We've outlined the benefits of each solution to help you find the best fit for your business. You can contact us or find more information by clicking here to visit our website.

LEAD ACID

Perfect for simplistic logistics processes with circular economy principles in mind.

- Up to 99% recyclable
- High levels of durability
- Tried and tested technology
- Cost effective solution

LITHIUM-ION

The most efficient energy solution available. Ideal for single and multi-shift environments.

- Easy and fast charging
- No battery servicing required
- No emissions when green electricity is used
 - Low life-cycle cost

HYDROGEN FUEL CELL

Ideal for large and intense applications where downtime isn't an option.

- Low maintenance
- Easy storage and transport
 - Emission free operations
- Retrofits for existing equipment

COMBUSTION ENGINES

Best for outdoor operations and businesses requiring rapid refuelling and low upfront investment.

- Compliant with European stage 5 regulations
 - Lowest initial cost
- Long run time and quick refuelling
- Suitable for outdoor operations